[A]

The Class Charity Sale

Last month, our class held a charity sale to help the local animal shelter. We brought old books, toys, and handmade cookies to sell. Everyone worked hard to decorate the tables and make signs. Even students from other classes came to buy things. By the end of the day, we had made more than $ 5,000! Our teacher helped us send the money to the shelter. The next week, the shelter sent us a thank-you letter with a photo of the dogs we helped. We were proud to have done something small but meaningful together.

1. What was the purpose of the charity sale?
(A) To buy new books.
(B) To help an animal shelter.
(C) To decorate the classroom.
(D) To win a contest.
2. What did the students sell at the charity sale?
(A) Only cookies.
(B) Old toys, books, and cookies.
(C) School uniforms.
(D) Posters and signs.
3. What happened after the sale?
(A) The students got a prize.
(B) The shelter sent a thank-you letter.
(C) The teacher bought a new pet.
(D) The students held another event.
4. What does the passage mainly talk about?
(A) A school trip to an animal shelter.
(B) How students worked together to help others.
(C) A sports day at school.
(D) How to take care of animals at home
